Motorcop Jack Ward Has Narrow Escape

Motorcop H. N. ("Jack") Ward, 321 Webster street, had a narrow escape from serious injury late Sunday when his motorcycle collided with an auto-mobile, driven, police say, by C. B. Miles barber 253 Poplay avenue at the intersection of Washington avenue and Ecurth street intersection of Washington avenue and Fourth street.

Catapulied from his machine, Ward's head struck the fender of Miles' car and he was pitched in front of the vehicle. One of the front wheels passed over his prostrate form, When Miles stopped his car, Ward was picked up from beneath it in a stunned condition. He was taken to St. Joseph's hospital by Police Inspector Bee, who witnessed the accident. Later the injured officer was taken home.

Physicians stated that Ward's head struck the fender on the spot where his skull was fractured in a previous motorcycle accident. He was conscious at his home and it was hoped the fracture had not been re-opened. Miles was arrested at his home after the accident.

FOR $68,067.34 IUENIIFY ALLEGED

Frank Wayne, alleged safeblower, arrested at Shaw. Miss., with Charles Moffatt, following the robbery of the postoffice safe at indiamola, Miss., has been identified through Bertillon and photograph systems as having twice before been in trouble in connection with safes blown near St. Louis, according to announcement Monday by Detective Chief Jake Gwaltney.

Paul Wagnener, Bertillon expert of the Memphis police department, mugged the two men Sunday while they were in jail at Charksdale and brought back with him their Bertillon measurements. Through final prints, Wayne was found to be the same man as the one arrested in St. Louis May 23, 1915, under the name of George L. East-brook, charged with robbing a post-office. The same man was again arrested May 25, 1919, on a similar charge.

Chrksdale and Memphis authorities are co-operating in working on the case and efforts are being made to determine whether Wayne, alias Eastbrook, is still wanted on the prior charges. Waggener, who was dispatched to Clarksdale by Chief Gwaltney, was accompanied by W. T. Griffin chief special agent of the Frisco, who becomes chief of detectives Thursday.
